The Ruwad Al Ain Bootcamp

ABOUT THE RUWAD AL AIN BOOTCAMP

The Ruwad Al Ain Bootcamp is an intensive, government-funded programme by Khalifa Fund, powered by ADGM Academy. Delivered at MZN Hub – a dedicated business accelerator in Al Ain – the bootcamp provides targeted training and mentorship to equip aspiring entrepreneurs and early-stage founders with the mindset, skills, and strategies to thrive in today's business landscape.

THE BOOTCAMP WILL:

01 Equip participants with the tools to identify, validate, and pitch impactful solutions

02 Deliver hands-on learning in a focused, high-engagement format

03 Connect participants with sector experts, mentors, and funding pathways

04 Create a clear bridge to incubation and funding via MZN Hub and partner organisations

WHY JOIN?

A bootcamp tailored to UAE Nationals in Al Ain, this intensive 5-day bootcamp will help you launch your venture. Dive into four days of hands-on learning and a Demo Day to showcase your ideas.

Participants will benefit from expert partners, immersive content on opportunity recognition, team building, prototyping, and pitch development. Top teams earn milestone grants and access to MZN Hub for continued incubation.

This bootcamp connects aspiring founders and professionals with industry experts, funding pathways, and incubation opportunities
